Saint Athanasius

ORTHODOX CHURCH

Sunday, October 22, 2017

Today's Readings: Galatians 1:11-19 Luke 16:19-31

Today is the Commemoration of the Kazan Mother of God Icon. (The Festal Procession in the Volga city of Kazan is above.) Our Lady of Kazan remains one of the most beloved icons in the Russian Orthodox Church. Originally acquired from Constantinople in the 1400's, the icon's copies were carried forth in processions during many calamities over the centuries, including the Polish invasion of Russia in the Time of Troubles and during the Nazi invasion of Soviet Russia in the 1940's.

Thank you for sharing Divine Liturgy with us today! Please participate at your comfort level. Greeters/Doorkeepers will be happy to answer your questions and provide service booklets to help you follow the service. Note: Holy Communion is open to all baptized Orthodox Christians who have observed the fasting requirements, had recent confession, and are at peace with neighbors.

20-30 of our Parish Community are in North Carolina for the Orthodox Family Camp in the Smokey Mountains. Hundreds of believers from across several states--including our archbishop--are gathering there for hiking, fellowship, and prayer (services twice a day). Please pray for their safe travels home!

Choir Rehearsal After Liturgy Today! Zoe Zamora will be leading a choir practice about 20 minutes after Liturgy concludes. We ask our choir singers to go through Fellowship Hour coffee & food lines first, eat a bite quickly, and come back to the nave ready to sing!

Great Vespers for St. Demetrius served Wednesday at 6:30pm in honor of his feast day on Thursday. Following at 7:20pm our fall catechesis series will be a continuation from last week's exploration of the services of the Church. Fr. Justin will explore the hymns and unique features of Vespers, Matins, and Liturgy. This segment will include many audio and video clips.

Welcome to Billy&Cindy Patterson, Fr. Justin's parents, who are visiting this weekend from their home state of Florida. We appreciate their making, donating, and installing new internal mailboxes to replace the ageing boxes currently in the parish hall. May God bless them & grant them many years!
