Today's Readings: Galatians 2:16-20 Luke 8:26-39

Today is our parish's 2nd Annual Visitors' Sunday!

Our greeters and doorkeepers are happy to provide service books to help you follow along in the Liturgy today. If you would like to be placed next to a parish member who might answer questions you have, just ask one of our greeters and they will connect you. Please feel free to participate at your own comfort level. The only thing we ask non-Orthodox visitors not to do is participate in Holy Communion. (Even among Orthodox, Communion is given only to those who have kept a fast from the previous evening on, who have made a recent Confession, and who are at peace with their neighbors.) We are glad you are here and invite you to join us for food downstairs after the Liturgy!

Friday, November 10, 2pm - 9pm
Saturday, November 11, 10am-5pm

Plan now to be a part of our new parish directory, which includes a mobile directory, and receive a free 8x10 photograph. You can also order portrait greeting cards for Christmas to send to family & friends.

The Annual Chili Cook-off for the Youth Group is next Sunday, November 5. All youth who plan on going to camp this summer are encouraged to bring a pot of chili and items for the silent auction. In the spirit of the fundraiser, please bring cash to donate towards the chili dinner. The auction will run for two weeks and will close at noon on Sunday, November 19. Please be prepared to pay for the items you won via cash or check on that day.

2017 Prison Ministry Conference is scheduled for Saturday, November 18 from 9am-3pm in Lexington. Please see Ellie Sutter today if interested. There will be excellent speakers talking about the "Consequences of Incarceration."

Spaghetti Luncheon for IOCC on Sunday, November 19 sponsored by The Sisterhood of St. Elizabeth the New Martyr (for Fellowship Hour). Suggested donation is $5 per person (young children eat free), and all money will be sent to the IOCC to aid the hurricane relief. For questions, contact Audrey Wagner at: audrey.anne.wagner@gmail.com

November/December Calendars and November Prayer Lists are in your parish mailboxes. We will transition to the new boxes this coming week.
