Welcome Guests and Visitors!

Holy Communion is open to all baptized Orthodox Christians who have fasted from food and water since midnight, had recent Confession, and are at peace with neighbors. Everyone is invited to join us after Liturgy for fellowship in the parish hall.

Car Blessings will immediately follow Divine Liturgy this weekend.

Individual House Blessing Schedule is posted on the bulletin board. If you would like a house blessing and have not yet signed up, please do so today! It is important that we all invite the Blessing of the Lord into our homes during this time of year. Please contact Father if you need to schedule a time not listed on the schedule.

Christian Education Class On Wednesday at 7:30pm Reader Ryan Winter will share Part III of a 3-part series on the spiritual classic by St. John Climacus, "The Ladder of Divine Ascent."

The St. Elizabeth Sisterhood invites all to attend the inaugural evening of "Inspired" Friday, January 24, 7pm, at St. Athanasius. Inspired is a time of facilitated conversation in which a few members of the congregation share what they love and what they love to do. All are welcome to attend and participate in the evening, and are also encouraged to bring friends and guests. Our first evening together will feature David Gann demonstrating the art of great coffee, Mattie Greathouse on flute, and Eleanor Sutter talking about highlights from her time in Russia.

Check you mailboxes for house blessing service booklet, tithing boxes, Jan/Feb calendars, and January prayer lists.

The Baby Basket Program is an ongoing project of the St. Elizabeth Sisterhood. Mary Cook is the coordinator and says that any monetary donation, no matter how small, will help in preparing a welcome basket for parents and their newborns. Your donation may be cash or check, but should be clearly marked for the baby basket program. Checks should be made out to the church.

Wednesday, January 22 marks the 41st Annual March for Life. Metropolitan Tikhon will be leading the Orthodox Christians who are participating in this march. Let's support them with our prayers.

2014 Church Calendars are still available. You will find them on the table by the front door or in a box in the bookstore. Your donation of $2 will help keep our bookstore solvent. A parishioner has generously donated the cost of the calendars in the past, but that donation only covered half the cost this year!
